

School Districts to Name Board Members

Saturday the voters in the various school districts will go to the polls to choose the board members that are to serve them.

The regular terms is three years but in some instances candidates are seeking to fill out unexpired terms.

Polls are to open at 12 noon and close at 7 p.m. in village and high school elections.

School board members, it has been pointed out, serve without salary or fees... usually out of a sense of civic duty.

In the Lincoln-Way high school district No. 210 which serves Frankfort and New Lenox townships and a portion of Manhattan township - three board members are to be elected. Two of them, Lester B. Case, of Manhattan, and Raymond Reiter, of New Lenox, are now members of the board and seeking re-election. The other candidate is Lorin Schleeter, of Manhattan, who is seeking to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of George Bovee, formerly of Manhattan who has moved out of the district. Bovee's term has two years to run.

There are four polling places, No. 1 at Frankfort village school, No. 2 the Mokena village school, No. 3, Haven school in New Lenox and No. 4 the village school at Manhattan.

In the village of New Lenox there are to be elected to the grade school board there - district 122...

...there are three candidates, J. Earl Robinson, L. M. Webb, and Robert C. Park, all incumbents. Mr. Park was appointed to fill an unexpired term and is now running for it. The polling place will be at Haven school.

In Mokena there are three candidates to fill the three places open on the village school board this year. Two of them are seeking re-election, Thomas F. Powers, an attorney, and Gordon A. Bruce, a steamfitter. The other candidate is Walter J. Shewski, an engineer and a graduate of Purdue university. He is seeking the place formerly filled by John Scarth, the mayor of Mokena. Mr. Scarth had been a member of the school board for many years but because of the press of other activities was not a candidate for re-election. The Mokena village school will serve as the polling place.

In Frankfort there is a contest. There are three places to be filled and four candidates, Wayne DePorto, Clyde Reils, John Topp and Herbert Folkers. All are new, as far as membership on the Frankfort school board is concerned. DePorto is a printer, Reils, an automobile mechanic, Topp, a retired maintenance of way man and Folkers is an attorney.

The board members whose terms expire this spring are Adam Heusner, Clarence Heisner and Leroy Hansen.

Voters in School District 128 in Homer township are asked to vote on the question Saturday of whether to increase the educational tax rate. The present rate is 75 cents per $100 of assessed valuation. The proposition on the ballot is to increase this to 96 cents per $100. The district requires more money, it was explained, because of an increased enrollment, which has necessitated hiring a second teacher. Three directors are to be elected too. They will be nominated at a caucus to be held at 12:45 at the school, 15 minutes before the polls open. The polls in this election will be open two tours, from 1 to 3 p.m.

The country districts throughout the area are electing directors but the time polls will open and close will vary.

The meeting is to start at 8 o'clock. The schedule of the year's activities will be presented to the members and later movies will be shown and refreshments served. The change in the date of the Holy Name society meeting was decided upon by the executive board when it met at the home of the president, Lawrence Weathers. Other members of the board present were Father Cecil Koop, Leo Marquardt, Ted Pethes, J. P. Henneberry, Kenneth Cornells and William Weber.

HAFKA WINS IN NEW LENOX: BUMP BEATEN

There were two contests in town elections in the area. In New Lenox Willard Hafka, incumbent highway commissioner, running on the Town ticket with Supervisor John E. Francis, was re-elected. Hafka defeated Albert F. Ziegler, who was running for the post on the Independent ticket by a vote of 228 to 200.

In Homer township the incumbent highway commissioner, George R. Bump was beaten in his attempt for re-election by Sylvester Hostert. Hostert, who was running on the Citizen's ticket nosed out Bump, running on the People's ticket in a nip and tuck battle, 238 to 225.

Edmund Sendra was elected to fill out a two year vacancy for constable. The office was formerly held by Robert Shepherd. Sendra was without opposition.

Homer voters also approved the proposal to reaffirm the road and bridge tax at 33 cents per $100 assessed valuation, by a vote of 313 to 122.

To return to the election at New Lenox Supervisor Francis, who was unopposed for re-election received 663 votes. Two candidates for the New Lenox library board, also unopposed, received the following vote, Fred H. Scheel, 623 and Maude Ayres, 650.

There were no contests in Frankfort township. Henry Yunker, of Mokena, running for re-election as highway commissioner, received a total of 189 votes, 70 in Frankfort and 119 in the Mokena precinct. Paul Lembeke, also of Mokena, was elected to fill out the term for assessor, polling a total of 176 votes, of which 63 were cast at Frankfort and 113 in Mokena.

In Green Garden township, William H. Bettenhausen, unopposed, was elected supervisor, an office that he had been holding by appointment following the resignation of Floyd Krapf after the latter had been elected county treasurer last year. Mr. Bettenhausen polled 72 votes in yesterday's election. So did Earl Christiansen who was re-elected highway commissioner of Green Garden.

Bird, Lamb - Live Ones - Are On Egg Hunt's Prize List

The third annual egg hunt to be staged by the Mokena Lions club Sunday afternoon in the old village park, is to be divided into three sections, with each section allocated to a certain area.

Area one will be for youngsters of pre-school age; area two will be for children in grades one thru three and the third area will be for the fourth to sixth grade pupils.

Youngsters who participate in the hunt are asked to bring their own baskets or bags to hold the eggs.

First prize will be parakeet and cage, donated by Lion George Rinke. The next two awards will be in cash, $2 and $1 respectively and some surprise awards are planned too. Co-chairmen of the event are Glen Miers and Roy Richardson.

They point out that inasmuch as there are two village parks it would be well to call attention to the fact that old village park is located behind the Methodist, Evangelical and Lutheran churches. The hunt is to begin at 2:30 p.m.

Another egg hunt in the area also is scheduled for Sunday and this one is described as an all-day affair and will be held by the Valley View restaurant on its grounds on Route 30, near Wolf road.

First prize will be a golden goose egg and not to jeopardize the life of a bird capable of such an output - or reasonable facsimile - the organizers of the hunt will pay $25 for that particular egg. They have put in a silver goose as an added starter and the finder of the silver egg will get a baby lamb - live! Baby rabbits and chicks will also be awarded as prizes.

"In the end of the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre. "And behold, there was a great earthquake; for the angel of the Lord came down from heaven, and rolled back the stone from the door and sat upon it. "His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow: "And for fear of him the keepers did shake and became as dead men. "And the angel answered, and said unto the women, 'Fear not ye; for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. He is not here for He is risen as He said. "Come, see the place where the Lord lay."

How Crossbills Got Their Names Is Easter Legend

by Vi Mrosek

With the advent of spring, bird stories are usual, but from Miss Dorothy Molter, sister of Mrs. Stuart Culp of Alpine, comes one that is unusual and most appropriate at Easter time. Miss Molter lives alone for much of the winter on the Isle of Pines in Knife Lake near Ely, Minn. During the months when she is snow bound she spends much time caring for the wild life of the island. She writes:

"...The birds have been pretty neighborly—almost too neighborly. They have already eaten nearly six pounds of peanut butter for this winter, plus one pound of crisco, half a pound of bacon grease, the rinds from a slab of bacon, a pound of nuts, and 60 pounds of cornbread besides a few sugar cookies. I'll probably have to make one more batch of cornbread before the winter is over."

"Well, its nice to have them around. We have lots of Crossbills this winter, but they don't come to the window much."

Miss Molter has a window that has tiers of bird feeders over it. "They feed in the tops of the pines. They eat the seeds from the pine cones, and then only come around during the years when the trees bear cones. Sometimes the trees don't have cones for three or four years."

"The Crossbills are a pretty bird. The males are a deep red, and they have white wing bars. The females are entirely different and have an olive green back and yellow bellies, with white wing bars."

"They are so named because their bills are crossed. The legend is that his bill got crossed when he pulled the nails from Christ's hands on the cross, and its red color is from Christ's blood. The bird is only as big as a small sparrow..."

FARMERS STUDY EROSION PLAN

An information type meeting has been held at the home of Joseph Sons, Wolf Road, Mokena for the purpose of creating interest and the possibility of forming a neighborhood soil conservation group.

Donald Doctor, chairman of the South Cook County soil conservation district, and Charles Fletcher, farm planner for that district, were present to explain the functions of the district. How the district was organized, its purpose, how it works with groups of farmers, and how the Soil Conservation Service and other agencies help the district carry on its program, were explained to the group.

Those present decided to band together and, with the help of Mr. Fletcher, soil conservation service technician, hold a series of meetings throughout the spring and summer for the purpose of becoming more fully acquainted with the ways and means of combating soil erosion and water problems on their farms.

Those present were Fred Wanner, Mack, Harold Jones, Russell Stankus, Joe Sons, Mr. Doctor, and Mr. Fletcher. Frank Liszt, Arthur Buske and Glenn Peterson expressed interest in the meeting but did not attend.

Easter Seal Drive In Need Of Donations

Easter Seals were mailed to 30,000 residents of Will county when the campaign opened March 10.

Toy urged all Will county residents who have not received seals to call at the special Easter Seal depot established at 105 N. Chicago street, room 204, Joliet. The campaign closes Easter Sunday, April 10.

MORE TEACHERS WILL BE HIRED AT HIGH SCHOOL

The salary schedule effective this year for teachers at Lincoln-Way high school is expected to remain in effect for the next school year.

At an informal session of the board it was indicated that the pay schedule would remain unchanged for the 1955-56 school year.

This schedule calls for a minimum salary of $3,300 for beginning teachers - that is to say teachers without any experience but with a bachelor's degree.

But the schedule also provides an automatic increase of $200 a year for teachers with four years or less of experience, so that by the time a beginning teacher has put in four years his or her salary is up to $4100 a year.

The beginning salary for a teacher with a master's degree but no experience is $3,500. The schedule provides for a maximum of $5,400 a year for teachers with a master's degree and 12 years' experience.

The automatic increase for teachers with four years and more of experience is $150 a year.

Because of the shortage of teachers, school boards find themselves competing not only against neighboring districts but against schools in distant sections as well. The Lincoln-Way salary schedule, it was pointed out, ranks among those of the better paying districts but it was indicated that when and if funds are available the basic salary rates will be advanced.

At its informal session the board discussed salary schedules but indicated nothing could be done to improve it for the coming school year.

The present enrollment of Lincoln-Way is approximately 400 but it is expected that it will be increased to 500 next September. There are 47 seniors in the school. Next fall it is expected at least 150 freshmen will enroll, according to Supt. A. Hunter Chapman. As a result three additional teachers will be needed, it was said, two on a full time basis and one part time.

One of the additional full-time teachers will be needed in home economics next year, Supt. Chapman said. Enrollment in that section is expected to double. There are approximately 50 girls who took the course this year and next September the number is expected to reach 100 or more.

Another full-time teacher will be needed to meet the growth in English and social studies courses while it is anticipated that the business education course will double in enrollment to total approximately 130 students, Supt. Chapman said so organized that it could meet the extra load by employment of a teacher on a part time basis.

At present there are 26 persons listed on the certificated including Supt. Chapman.

With Boos And Hisses, Cast Is Sincerely Yours

Audiences that attend the "Curse of An Aching Heart" at the Mokena public school gym April 22 and 23, will have an opportunity to express themselves, to borrow a bit of a phrase from the artistic and the temperamental.

The Mokena Village Players—who are reviving this melodrama which has played to packed houses and caused more tears to flow than anything other than "St. Elmo," or "Way Down East," are giving the audience an opportunity to vent their feelings.

In fact the audience will be encouraged to express themselves, not only to applaud the hero and hiss the villain, but otherwise to voice their feelings.

The co-directors, Herta Hamilton and Mildred Anderson, are working to costume and set this production in the styles of the early 1900s.

Shirley Gundling will play the heroine, Melody Lane. The two important male leads will be played by George Carlisle "Lucius Goodenough" and Marion Owen "Windermere Hightower". Other men's roles are played by Jim Quinn and Gerrit Swart.

Beatrice Conson will be Sarah Abernathy, Shirley Jones will be Aurelia Abernathy, Dorothy Bueschel will play "Redwing", an Indian maid, not a song.

"Battleaxe Annie" will be played to the hilt by Ethel Gottlieb, Nelly Blythe by Kay Owen and Muriel Atkins by Nell McElveen. Save either one of these nights for an evening of hilarity at the "Curse of An Aching Heart."

Churches Of Area Expect Large Crowds At Easter

GOOD FRIDAY RITES CLIMAX TO HOLY WEEK

At New Lenox tomorrow afternoon at the same time - from 12 noon to 3 o'clock similar services will be held at Grace Episcopal church with Harris C. Mooney, a seminarist in charge. Persons may come and go at anytime during the service.

And of course there will be those who will attend the various Good Friday services in Joliet, at the churches and the Rialto theatre.

Chapel services for youngsters, arranged under the auspices of the Will County Ministerial association, are being held daily thru Holy Week. In New Lenox they are being held in the Methodist church from 8:15 to 8:45, concluding tomorrow morning.

In Mokena youth chapel services are being held in St. John's Evangelical Reformed church with the cooperation of the Methodist church. The time of the service today and Good Friday is from 9:00 to 9:30. The enrollment for the Mokena services was 132 and well over 100 have attended each service. After the service tomorrow morning a breakfast will be served.

There will be a priest at Grace church in New Lenox on Easter, the Rev. John McCarthy, assistant director of the unit of research of the national council of the Episcopal church, and he will be the celebrant of a choral Eucharist at 11 o'clock. A new vestment for high feast, a white and gold chasuble, recently purchased by the parish, will be used for the first time on Easter.

TRADITIONAL EASTER SUNRISE SERVICE TO BE HELD AT PALOS

An Easter sunrise service - now traditional - will be held again this year at Palos Park. An intercommunity service, the order of worship will be conducted by seven pastors from the Palos, Worth and Orland areas. Music will be furnished by the Palos Heights Community Methodist church choir and quartet.

The service will begin at 7 o'clock in the main lodge of the Community Center Foundation at 127th st. and the Southwest highway, Palos Park, with prayer, music and the reading of the scriptures that tell the story of the Resurrection.

The climax is reached when the worshippers, led by the pastors, make their way to the crest of Foundation hill where the ultimate words of hope are spoken and the Easter hymns are sung.

A breakfast of sausage, scrambled eggs, tomato juice, hot cross buns will be served after the service for all who have phoned or mailed reservations.

This is the high point of the Christian year.

Holy Week. It began with Palm Sunday as the processional has moved now to this Maundy or Holy Thursday commemorating the Last Supper, reaches its climax tomorrow, Good Friday and attains fulfillment on Easter Sunday.

Reports from all parts of the world note that the turn toward the teachings of Christianity is showing a steady growth and that church attendance, both here and abroad, displays a marked increase over that of last year. And last year's church attendance was greater than the year previous, and so on, illustrating that the growth is steady.

All the churches of this area are planning special services for Easter. Choirs have been rehearsing for weeks for the occasion. Numerous sunrise services are planned and besides these some churches will have additional periods of worship in order to accommodate the crowds.

Most churches will have services tonight with Holy Communion, and in Roman and Episcopal churches today the Blessed Sacrament was transferred from the high altar to side altars and the altars stripped. The faithful will keep vigil.

These same churches will celebrate the Mass of the Pre-sanctified tomorrow morning and later will have the three-hour devotions that mark the period that Christ hung on the cross on Calvary. Other denominations in the area also plan three-hour devotions.

The 40 days of lent will end at noon on Saturday. And then comes Easter Sunday.

Easter is the greatest day in the Christian world because it proclaims again the good news contained in gospel of St. Matthew - that Christ had risen from the dead and that all those who believe in Him also shall triumph over the grave.

Vehicle Tax In Mokena Now Double

Mokena automobile owners who have not purchased their 1955 village licenses will find them more expensive now. Had they bought them when they were supposed to the fee would have been $2.50. Now it is just double that amount.

At the meeting of the village board last night the names of the delinquent car owners were given to Judge Balaz with instructions to collect. Delinquents will not only have to pay $5 for their car license but also will pay a fee to the judge.

The board approved the action of A. S. Duncan in subdividing a tract north of Hickory creek and the old Wolf road.

Eight building permits, calling for a total of $59,500 in construction costs, were granted by the board.

The largest sum involved is $30,000, which is the estimated cost given by Robert Fredin for the super mart to be built on Wolf road. Other permits - Arthur Bogacz, 5-room frame house and garage, $8,000; Ray Walls, 5-room brick veneer house and basement, $10,000; James Horras, 4-room frame house, basement and garage, $9,000; Fred Clark, frame garage, $1,000; Walter Hentsch, frame garage, $800; Mrs. George Bisgrove, new roof and repairs to rear porch, $500 and Henry Bettenhausen, repairing roof, $200.

A request that repairs be made to Revere road, was presented to the board by A. Duncan, who resides there.

Mayor John Scarth said that the road maintenance fund of the village was limited and that before anymore work is done he wishes to consult with the Munford Engineer Co. of Chicago Heights.

A group of students, freshmen from a social studies class, Lincoln-Way high school attended last night's board meeting. They were: Stanley Barnett, chairman, Ted Dunham, Joseph Sluis, Buddy Lair and Sheila Bennett, all of Mokena. On their return to class a report is made.

Similar studies are being made thru attendance at other board meetings.

Those who attended the session of the Frankfort village trees were, Dave Zechlin, chairman, James Dixon, Richard Kobbar, and Pat Wilson, all of Frankfort.

At the Manhattan village board meeting the students, all from that village, were, Larry Phifer, chairman, Shirley Weber, Diane Schaubel, David McGuire and Edward Fehrenbacher.

Zoning Board Oks One Petition; To Reconsider Other

The Will County zoning board of appeals, meeting at the Cooper and Hostert garage in Mokena last Friday night, considered and time, has been designed to provide a new approach to the basic concepts of physics and to recent developments in the physical sciences so that the Fellow may return to the classroom at the end of the summer freshly aware of the directions in which fundamental science is progressing.

Mr. Hardy attended the Third National convention of the National Science Teachers association in Cleveland, March 24-26. The meeting was attended by some 1500 science teachers from the United States and foreign countries.

Set Up Vocational Information File At Lincoln-Way

Guidance counselors at Lincoln-Way, Ralph Wright and Mrs. Alice Gorman, are working with the librarian, Mrs. Martha Welch, in setting up a file of vocational information which is available to all students. At this time there are more than sixty occupations including accounting, buying, clerical occupations, farming, law, medicine, pharmacy and the armed forces. These represent only a beginning, as the file will continue to grow rapidly as new materials are added.

Materials are filed according to a code number prepared by the Division of Occupational Analysis, U.S. Employment Service. To facilitate a student's finding information on a particular occupation, there is also an alphabetical file which gives the code number of the folder in which that particular occupation will be found.

Students at Lincoln-Way are showing a great deal of interest in the more than 70 college and university bulletins in the library. These include all colleges in Illinois and other major universities throughout the United States. The collection will continue to expand as a result of student or teacher requests for catalogs from institutions not now represented.

The main speaker for this event was a representative from the Patricia Stevens Modeling school. There was a style show consisting of two girls from each school. Lincoln-Way's two models were Shirley Tarrant and Pat Heisner.

Election and installation of officers followed.

LIBRARIEN'S CONFERENCE

Mrs. Martha H. Welch, librarian at Lincoln-Way, attended the annual spring conference of the Illinois Association of School Librarians at Hotel Fort Armstrong in Rock Island, Mar. 25 - 27.

Fortcoming productions are a special Latin-American show by the Spanish Club, April 14, in commemoration of Pan-American Day; a concert program by the Lincoln-Way band under direction of Robert Taylor, April 28, and a dramatization honoring one of the great men of science by the Science club, May 5.

L-W SCIENCE TEACHER EARNS GE FELLOWSHIP

H. Neil Hardy, Chairman of the Science and Mathematics Department at Lincoln-Way high school has recently received notice from Dr. Elmer Hutchinson, Dean of the Faculty at Case Institute of Technology, that he is among fifty science teachers in twelve states to receive a General Electric Fellowship for the coming summer.

The following letter was received by Mr. Hardy:

"I am very happy to inform you that you have been selected as one of the General Electric Science Fellows at Case Institute of Technology for the summer of 1955. As you know, the session begins June 20 and ends July 29. Each fellow will be expected to remain at Case for the entire six weeks' period.

"This Fellowship includes tuition, board and lodging, text-books, and travel to and from Cleveland at the beginning of the program and from Cleveland to your home at the end of the program. Laundry and other personal expenses are not included. "We are looking forward to having you here this summer, and I am sure that you will find the season both profitable and stimulating. Detailed information will be sent to you early in May."

To recognize outstanding high school teaching, the General Electric Company has made available fifty fellowships for a special six weeks science course at Case Institute of Technology to be awarded to high school and preparatory school teachers of physics. The program of study, now to be offered for the ninth

International Nickel Output At Record High

Production of nickel by International Nickel from its own ores during 1954 set a record at about 275,000,000 pounds. This high output was made possible by the completion of certain mining and metallurgical developments maximizing years of planning and research and the progress made in Inco's underground mining expansion program.

Health Officials Warn Home Buyers To Check on Water

(CNS)—The Cook county health department has issued a warning to prospective purchasers of homes in the unincorporated areas of the county.

Dr. John B. Hall, director of the department, warned buyers to exercise great care in buying a home or home site in any area not served by public water supply and sewerage systems.

Dr. Hall said health department sanitary engineers have investigated many complaints of malfunctioning of wells and septic tanks.

Commented Hall: "This investigation leads us to the conclusion that private water supply and sewage disposal systems, even under the best of conditions, are not an adequate substitute for municipal-type water supply systems and sanitary sewers and sewage treatment works."

Dr. Hall recommended the purchase of extra lot area in order to permit expansion of the septic tank seepage system or even complete replacement and relocation if necessary. The doctor warned that "relocation or expansion is not possible if all of the available area has already been utilized for the seepage system."

He emphasized that the required approval of a septic tank by the county health department is in no way to be considered as a guarantee that the system will give indefinite, trouble-free service.

Dr. Hall said his warning "is directed primarily to families who have been served by public facilities and who assume that the water flowing from a faucet is safe to drink and that they can discharge a practically unlimited volume of sewage down the drain without any difficulty."

(SIU) In 1807 Golconda in Pope County consisted of three small stores, one tavern, one grocery or saloon, and about 20 dwellings.

Baseball Drills To Begin At Tinley

The first baseball practice of the season will get under way Sunday afternoon, April 10 at 2 p.m. in the Ray Zimmerman Memorial Park in Tinley. Anyone interested in trying out for the team is urged to attend the first practice. Lester Rump will be the manager this year.

Sponsors For 16" Soft Ball Teams For Tinley Meet

A meeting consisting of sponsors interested in having teams for the 16 inch softball league for the 1955 season was held April 4 at 8 p.m. in the home of William R. McBurney, 17845 Ridgeland ave., Tinley Park. The teams represented at this meeting were Lehmann Bros. garage, Seyffert and Locke, Teehan's Tap, Service Bakery, Devlin's Service Station and Brandau's Excavating.

The enthusiasm displayed by the representatives of the sponsors was encouraging to this writer, Marvin Smith, because of the evident determination to make the 1955 season a worthwhile endeavor. Even though it was raining and quite miserable outdoors, the atmosphere of the McBurney home was congenial and contributed much toward making the evening enjoyable. Many problems concerning the betterment of the League this coming season were discussed pro and con.

It is quite important that all who are interested in sponsoring a team be present at the next meeting to be held at the

MISSION REPORT

The March report of the Peter H. McCarthy Morning Star mission, just released, shows that the conversions for the period totaled 33.

On the material side 308 persons were given lodgings and 708 free meals were served. Clothing was given to 129 persons and relief furnished 19 families. Peter H. McCarthy, the founder and still operating head of the mission, also reported having paid bus fares for 76 persons stranded in Joliet. Thirty six dozen doughnuts were given to youngsters who called at the mission last month.

Amateur Radio Club Growing Fast

The Joliet Amateur Radio Society (JARS) now has 83 members. The club gets out periodically an interesting mimeographed bulletin, called "Ground Waves," which is now in its fifth issue.

Among the members are, from New Lenox: Tony Luce, W9VQD, Dick Whitmer, W9LRY, Roy Dowle, W9VYB, Len Warning, W9WGA, Ron Whitaker, W9OGC. And from Tinley Park: Howard T. Francis, W9NHM, Clark Gibson, W9BAJ, Earl Whalen, W9YVU, and William Wiabel, W9N9QD.

There is some talk going around of JARS giving a "ham" picnic this summer, and they say the JARS "field day" is going to be the biggest event in the history of the club.

JARS is wanting to rent on a 99 year lease, within three miles of Joliet a plot of 400 by 400 ft., any unproductive ground available. Interested parties should write to JARS, 2320 N. Raynor ave., Joliet, Ill.

Doctors Thank Participants In Vaccine Tests

The doctors of the Hedges Clinic at Frankfort have expressed their sincere thanks and appreciation to parents and children who so willingly cooperated in the recent polio immunizations held at the Clinic as part of the program in Will county.

A report of the Salk vaccine trials made in 1954 is scheduled for April 12. Clinic members said they hoped that the vaccine would be available soon for everyone. They regretted that every child in the Lincoln-Way area could not have been treated with the vaccine. It was limited so it was administered on a first come first served basis.

Nickel in the Jet Age

The Jet Age brought with it a need for "super" materials with hitherto unavailable combinations of strength, ductility and resistance to special types of corrosion. Alloys containing nickel have met these stringent requirements. Virtually all the special alloys developed for airplane gas turbines or jet engines in the past 15 years contain nickel. The nickel content of these alloys ranges from less than 10 per cent in stainless steels to more than 70 per cent in certain complex alloys.

To All My Patients,

Our relations have been so pleasant in the past that I felt I could not leave this practice without making proper preparations for your welfare by obtaining a man who could take my place with you. As you undoubtedly know, I have been called into military service.

I feel that I am exceptionally fortunate in obtaining Dr. Carlos Sarmiento as an associate who will continue to be associated with me when I return from military service. Dr. Sarmiento is a graduate of the University of Havana, the same school from which I graduated.

He has taken up all my duties and will fulfill all of the responsibilities during my absence and remain after I return from duty. The office, the telephone and everything else remains the same. You can call or continue your appointments without interruption in the slightest degree.

I regret, of course, that I will no longer be able to serve you during my period of military service. I felt a deep pleasure in the work done for you and the pleasantness of our personal association in addition to the professional. I could not leave without doing my best to provide for your welfare during my period of absence.

Dr. J. L. Gonzalez

Babson Discusses Should U. S. Strike First?

In view of the latest news from Russia, businessmen and investors are much excited regarding the new book published by D. Van Nostrand Co., Inc., New York City, entitled "Influence of Force in Foreign Relations." As the author, Captain W. D. Puleston, is a neighbor of mine and recently gave a most dynamic address at the Webster College Winter Conference, I must comment thereon and advise everyone to read it.

Eighteen "Fatal Mistakes" Captain Puleston told me last spring of these "mistakes." Shortly thereafter, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, the late President's wife, was visiting my home in Wellesley Hills, Mass. I asked her what she thought of these "mistakes" for which the Democratic Administrations were reported responsible. Mrs. Roosevelt answered: "Well, notwithstanding Captain Puleston's so-called 'mistakes,' we won two wars, didn't we, Mr. Babson? Perhaps someone should now write a book on the Eighteen Master-Strikes which won these wars!"

Personally I believe that, although a fearless critic, Captain Puleston is eminently fair in his judgments. He emphasizes mistakes made by Republican statesmen such as Root, Hughes, Kellogg, Stimson, and President Hoover equally with those made by Presidents Wilson and Roosevelt. He points to Wilson's statesman-like, but unheeded, appeal to European leaders in 1916 to seek a "peace without victory." Similarly, Puleston has pointed to mistakes made by military as well as diplomatic leaders. He carefully cites proof showing the undue subordination of the trained military to untrained civilians. Politics, between 1909 and 1941, by weakening our armed forces, caused first Germany and then Japan to attack us on the incorrect assumption that they could defeat us before we could prepare to fight.

What Should U. S. Do Now? Strike First?

Businessmen and investors want to know what Captain Puleston thinks we should do now. This is it - Increase the nation's defenses, particularly industrial areas, against air attacks; devise more efficient methods to prevent delivery of bombs, or retention of any such bombs now held in the country by enemy agents; keep a large proportion of our land, sea, and air forces, particularly fighting planes, always on the alert; prohibit the entry of unidentified planes into certain important areas; finally, and most important, decide now that we will never again await an "overt enemy attack."

Americans have been led to believe that their Government is committed to awaiting an enemy attack with nuclear bombs. Puleston points to an honorable and long accepted middle course, namely, if an enemy nation, possessing the ability to destroy us, disposes its forces in position to do so, we should immediately mobilize and station our forces in position to strike the enemy and defend the United States. When in all respects we are ready, inform the hostile government that if within 48 hours it does not demobilize its forces, we will take any or all measures to protect our country. If the potential attack should be immediately delivered, as mobilized, we would get an even break; if the enemy then demobilizes we can prevent war. If, in spite of our warning, it continues to hold its forces ready to spring surprise attacks, we then should strike first. Under International Law, having given the foe fair warning, we would be fully justified, claims the Captain.

Politics May be a Factor
In case we are in World War III or "sitting on a keg of uranium" in November 1956, it seems as if President Eisenhower would be certain of re-election. I cannot imagine a better-trained man for the Presidency under such a condition. Whether or not the Republican strategists have this in mind, I leave to you readers to decide. The Presidential election coming next year certainly complicates the situation. Certainly, the character and location of each industry should be most carefully considered. Also read "The Natural Cycle of Government," an important mimeographed brochure, written and published by Edison E. Shrum of Fomfelt, Missouri.

Readers should study the history of Formosa before deciding what attitude the United Nations will take. The fact is that Formosa was a part of China for centuries until 1895, when China was forced to "give" it to the Japanese. The Japanese developed Formosa and made it what it is today. At the close of World War II, the Japanese were compelled to give up Formosa and return it to China. Strictly speaking, there are two Chinas today - the Mainland under Communist Administration - and Formosa under the conservative Chiang Kai-shek. Both claim sole representation in the United Nations. Thus far only Formosa, ruled by Chiang Kai-shek, is a member of the United Nations. What of the Future? My Forecast

Although we should hold Formosa for the present, I forecast that Formosa will sometime again be an integral part of China which will have a compromise government such as General Marshall recommended. Before then both Chinas will be members of the United Nations. I further forecast that World War III will be avoided for this year at least. Even though Captain Puleston seems logical in saying that only by "striking first," after fair warning, can we avoid being destroyed, I doubt if the American people would support "striking first" based only on Formosa. Yet, the recent vote of Congress indicates that we might. Certainly, we are in a very critical situation.

Businessmen will be tempted at least to postpone capital expenditures until the air becomes clearer. Investors will consider the stock market very selective. Even now investors are purchasing mainly the aircrafts, metals, and oils, together with certain other stocks which should prosper as "war babies." Wise investors will probably not buy stocks of companies in large cities vulnerable to bombing. Furthermore, all investors should keep in mind the probability that prices, wages, and money rates would probably be "fixed" immediately at the start of any World War III, and a severe profits tax be re-enacted. President Eisenhower might veto some of this legislation; but with the Democrats in control of Congress it could be passed over the President's veto in view of Russia's attitude.

PMA Offers Farmers Plan To Finance Bulk Milk Tanks

Dairy farmers who are members of Pure Milk Association will be able to buy a bulk tank without a down payment and by paying only a five cent check-off on every 100 pounds of milk produced.

A plan of financing bulk tanks was announced at the annual meeting of the Pure Milk Association at the Conrad Hilton hotel March 19.

Under the PMA plan, a member can choose any tank that meets the association standards. The association will get a written commitment from the farmer's milk dealer to pay 15 cent premium for the bulk milk until the tank is paid for.

The details of the plan were explained by A. L. McWilliams, general manager of the association. He said that the plan was purely voluntary. To members who were opposed to bulk tanks he said, "If you don't want a bulk tank, PMA will continue to furnish a market for your milk."

He emphasized that the long term interest of the dairy farmer lies in making milk distribution more efficient. "Bulk tank is one way to do it," he said.

The new Ford Fairlane Town Sedan is an outstanding example of modern 4-door design.

In 1954, more Fords were bought by the motoring public than any other make. That's because more and more people are discovering that Ford has more to offer!

FOR YEARS, Ford has been the trend-setter in all the features that make a car worth more... V-8 power... Ball-Joint ride... modern styling. And today, Ford brings you even more good reasons to buy.

First, Ford offers the reassuring response of new Trigger-Torque power in your choice of two new and mighty V-8 engines or the industry's most modern Six.

Next, Ford for '55 brings you a new, and smoother, Angle-Poised Ride, made possible by Ford's advanced new Ball-Joint Front Suspension system.

And finally, in just plain good looks, Ford's farther out front than ever. With brand-new styling inspired by the long, low lines of the fabulous Thunderbird, Ford is America's most beautiful buy!

to matching these important Chevrolet advantages . . .

If you're planning to buy a new car, the one you just can't afford to miss seeing is Chevrolet—for 19 straight years America's best-selling car. The Motormatic Chevrolet offers you so much more than the other low-priced cars that it's hardly fair to compare them. And even the high-priced cars don't have all the advantages that today's Chevrolet offers you.

The beauty's built in—not bolted on! Chevrolet's beauty is inherent in the basic contours of metal and glass. There's no excessive bolted-on ornamentation to go out of style overnight.

The Body's by Fisher! You see Body by Fisher on lots of the high-priced cars—and only Chevrolet has it in the low-price field!

Today's most modern engines! That goes for Chevrolet's new V8 and two new sixes as well. All bring you a modern 12-volt electrical system—double the voltage of other low-priced cars. Then Chevrolet's new "Turbo-Fire V8" has the shortest piston stroke in the industry!

A drive to suit your driving! There's silky, peppery Powerglide (even better this year!), new Overdrive (both extra-cost options), and a new Synchro-Mesh transmission that's as smooth as they come.

All the power helpers you want! Windows, seat, steering, brakes—all are available with built-in "muscles" to make driving as effortless as you wish. They're optional at extra-cost—and worth it!

Come take the key! There have never been so many good reasons why you should drive a Chevrolet!

Over Ten Million Chevrolet owners—Two Million more than any other car!

From Congressman N. M. Mason Let Us Look At The Record (Taken from the Congressional Record)

Mr. Mason: Mr. Speaker from 1933 to 1953 the New Deal Democrats, under F. D. R. and Truman, were in the saddle. During those 20 years our Federal taxes were upped and upped and upped -- from $2 billion in 1933 to $65 billion in 1953, an increase of $23 billion in 20 years.

The Republicans gained control of Congress in 1946. During their control they not only cut taxes, but they also balanced the budget, and had a cash balance of $8.4 billion on hand at the end of the 2 year period.

In 1953 the Republicans again gained control, this time of both the White House and the Congress. During 1953 and 1954 Federal expenditures were cut $10 billion and Federal taxes were cut $7.4 billion - the greatest tax cut ever made in 1 year.

Mr. Speaker, that is the record: Taxes being upped and upped during the 20 years of control by the New Deal Democrats, and taxes being reduced both times the Republicans took over control of the Government.

Now, the New Deal Democrats have forced through the House a $20 per person tax cut. That amounts to a loss of $2.3 billion to the Treasury. For every $20 the taxpayer does not have to pay next year, however, the Government will have to borrow $20 and charge it against the children of the present taxpayers, plus the interest upon the same. So, all the proposal actually would do is to place a heavier tax load upon our children in order to lighten our own tax load.

Mr. Speaker, every tax increase means less take-home pay for the American working man. It means an automatic reduction in his pay. By the same token every cut means more take-home pay for the American working man. It means an automatic pay raise for him.

Which party therefore, Mr. Speaker, has the better record from the standpoint of the working man, the New Deal Democratic Party or the Republican Party? In 1955 which political party - judged by the record - can with good grace be before the voters and ask for their support on the basis of its tax record?

A Government By Delegated Authority

"Ours is a Government by delegation of authority," says Congressman Howard W. Smith (D.-Va.), Chairman of the Rules Committee of the House, in speaking before the American Good Government Society at the George Washington Dinner, February 22, 1955. Congressman Smith said, in part:

"Today we have what might be called government by delegation of authority. Local communities have delegated to State legislatures local problems that could best be solved at home, for a mess of financial pottage from the State legislatures.

"The State governments have delegated to the Congress problems that could best be solved at home by the States in return for handouts from the Federal Treasury of their own money. Congress, in turn, catching the spirit of the times, delegates to the President the legislative power to make regulations having the effect of law. But the end of delegation is not yet. The President delegates the authority given him by Congress to the heads of departments and agencies. They, in turn, delegate it to the heads of bureaus; and to whom the heads of bureaus delegate the actual writing of these regulations or laws, only God knows."

To Congressman Smith's remarks we say Amen. The twin evils that are destroying Liberty and Freedom in the United States are the 16th Amendment and the delegation of legislative power by Congress to the bureaucracy in Washington, the maintenance of which is costing approximately fourteen billion dollars each year.

We Shall Live

Lesson for April 10, 1955

"ETERNAL Life" has two meanings in the New Testament. One meaning refers to life beyond death. And yet this meaning is never applied to all human beings. It is either taken for granted or taught outright in the New Testament that all persons survive what we call death. But "eternal life" refers in this sense only to the survival of those who have accepted God's grace, never to those who have rejected it. The other meaning has to do with a quality of life itself, here and now, in this world, this side of what we call death.

Dr. Foreman
to do with a quality of life itself, here and now, in this world, this side of what we call death.

Everlasting Life Can Be Terrible

The point is that if this quality of life is lacking in this world, the prospect of immortality is the most dismal that can be imagined. A modern pessimistic poem ends with the thought that in our whole universe we find everything contemptible—there is nothing to praise, not even ourselves. Suppose a person who has come down to that wretched conclusion goes on out through the curtain of death into the beyond—facing the prospect of endless existence, still seeing nothing but the contemptible within and without? What worse hell could be needed than that? So in the New Testament, immortality, as such, the mere prospect of personal survival after death—is never held out as something to be desired in itself. Eternal life, life that endures beyond death, is desirable only when the person who looks forward to it already possesses eternal life, as a changed and new life. To put it another way: Only those who have been born again can be happy in looking forward to their "birthday in heaven." A corpse lying in the baggage car does not look forward to the train's arrival at its destination; only the living may have that pleasure. The corpse exists; the passengers live. So the Christian thought of Life—beyond is not "We shall exist" but rather "We shall live."

Christ Lives Again
Perhaps Christians believe in eternal life, in the sense of this on-going through "death" of this present eternal life, less because of arguments than because of some inner certainty, some whisper of God within the heart rather than some argument of logic knocking at the brain. Still, if one can speak of arguments, there are two which specially appeal to Christians in all ages. One is that Christ lived, and lives, again. The first Christians told the world about a risen Christ. It is true they spoke of Christ crucified; but a crucifix does not express the whole Christian message. The dominant note of the New Testament is not death but life. Paul appeals to the resurrection of Christ in this famous chapter of his letter to the Corinthians. If that story is not true, he says, we are simply back where we were, the whole Christian faith is pure delusion. Every once in a while, and in our times more than twice in a while, people will try to tell us that the resurrection of Christ is a story you can "take or leave, that you can cut off the gospels with the burial of Jesus, and still be a Christian. No, if that were so Christ would be no more than another dead dreamer. The resurrection sheds a brilliant light on everything that went before it and everything that comes after it.

Christ Lives in Me
The other argument which lies at the heart of the Christian's faith in a "life everlasting" which is worth looking forward to, is based on personal experience. "Christ lives in me" was the testimony of Paul first, and it echoes from the hearts of Christians ever since. When a man honestly thinks himself over, and asks, "What have I done, what am I, that God should trouble himself about me any longer? What right have I to expect much less to demand, life everlasting?" his answer will be a melancholy "Nothing." Life that has no present sheen or strength of eternity about it or in it, has outlived itself in less than three score years and ten. But if there is anything in a man that Christ has touched, if there is anything in a man that warrants saying, "Christ lives here," then he will dare and rejoice to say Christ, "We shall live."

USE A TOMATO PLANT TO DETECT GAS

Tomato plants might help you decide why your house plants aren't doing too well.

G. M. Foster, floriculture specialist at the University of Illinois, says ethylene gas can hurt your pot plants, although some plants are much more resistant to it than others.

Even though you use a gas stove or furnace in your home, ethylene gas may not be present in the air. Only manufactured gas is high in ethylene; natural gas has a very low ethylene content.

Foster recommends putting a young tomato seedling or two with your house plants, because tomatoes are especially sensitive to ethylene. They will soon tell you whether there is a damaging concentration of ethylene gas present. If the leaves of the tomato plant tend to arch or curve downward abnormally, you can be fairly sure that ethylene gas is doing the damage.

Tight connections and careful regulation of oil, coal and gas burners for proper combustion will reduce the probability of gas injury to your house plants. Only a very small amount of gas escaping into the air (far less than can be detected by smell) may prove harmful.

Ductile Irons

The ductile irons are a family of cast metals. Since first produced commercially in 1949, they have established themselves as important engineering materials. Ductile irons have the processing advantages of cast iron — good fluidity and castability, ready point — combined with many of the engineering advantages of steel — good strength, toughness, wear resistance and substantial ductility.

The first architecture training west of the Alleghenies was given at the University of Illinois in 1868.

Laboratory study for botany students was introduced to America by the University of Illinois in 1869.

The first moving assembly line in the automobile industry was put into operation at Ford Motor Company's Highland Park, Mich., plant in the spring of 1914. The principle of the moving line for entire assembly of automobiles developed from a small magneto assembly line started in the Highland Park plant in 1913.

When everything else costs so much...

Your electric friend

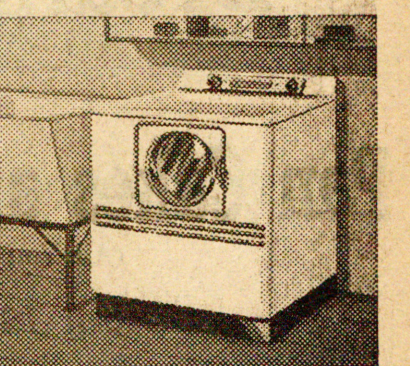

"LITTLE BILL"
still works for pennies
a day—

How Public Service Company keeps your electric bill down

Though the cost of living has doubled—today electricity actually costs you less per kilowatt-hour than it did 25 years ago.

Many new ideas have helped Public Service Company keep the cost of electricity low. Today, for example, we send out your electric bill every two months. This cuts the cost of bookkeeping, printing and meter-reading in half. And, by putting your bill on a post card, we also save on envelopes and postage. These "little savings" all add up to a big saving for you in lower-cost electricity.

So today, while you're using far more electricity than 25 years ago, you're actually getting more of it for your money (almost twice as much, in fact).

For just pennies a new electric dryer dries an entire family wash... automatically. No lugging or heavy lifting—the job is done, rain or shine.

Tinley Park Unit No. 615

March 25 was a social meeting for ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary with hostesses: Georgine Mager, Hazel Sehnert and Mooneyen Phillipps.
There will be no meeting on Good Friday, April 8. Planned for the April 22 meeting which will be held at the Tinley Park School at 7:45 p.m., is the initiation of new members. Past presidents will be honored and visitors from other units will be welcomed. President Mamie Brandau attended the Cook County Council meeting on April 1 at the Hamilton club. Attending the 8th District in Harvey on Tuesday evening were: Mamie Brandau, Erna Wallin, Marie Hagedorn and Frances Rowden. Coming meeting of the past presidents will be held at the home of Gertrude Jacobs on April 19 at 12:30 p.m.

Some morning in the near future, an auxiliary member may pick you up and take you to a "galloping breakfast" - As You Are! The child welfare program of the American Legion Auxiliary is one of the most important of all its activities. "A square deal for every child" is the slogan of the American Legion and its auxiliary. Although the work is carried on throughout the entire year, the month of April is set aside to stress the activities of this program. The state auxiliary program provides for a Christmas gift to every child of a veteran in an Illinois institution; it assists in the care of children in the Illinois Soldiers and Sailor's child school at Normal. Some of the many other services are: providing of canteen books for boys and girls at St. Charles and Geneva schools and contributes to Municipal Tu-berecrosis sanatorium for children.

This unit and the 8th District, of which is unit is a part, sponsor the Sherman cottage at the I.S.S.C. school in Normal. In June, the Legion plans a yearly pilgrimage to Normal. To aid them, we ask the public to aid us. This can be done by generous contributions on Poppy Day which will be held in May.

GET AT SPOTS IMMEDIATELY

Spring thaws and dirty water on sidewalks and streets that result from them easily cause spots on trouser legs and long skirts. Take care of them right away. If spots are allowed to "set" they may permanently stain. Tackle them by brushing off the loose soil, then gently spot the stain with soap and water. And, never press the spotted garment, for the heat of the iron will make the stain permanent. Do what you can to remove the spots, then send the garment to your laundry.

The game was fast and exciting with the second quarter ending with Tinley's lead whittled to two points, 30-28. In the third quarter Harvey sprinted to a 7 point lead but Tinley wasn't stopped and as the quarter was almost ended grabbed a one point lead, 39 to 38. As the buzzer ended the period, Harvey shot a basket and went out in front 40 to 39. The fourth quarter saw the lead change back and forth, with Harvey finally winning by one point. CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

God's healing and redemptive power will be emphasized in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" at Christian Science services this Sunday, April 10.

Scriptural selections will include the following from Psalms (103:2-4): "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases; Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving kindness and tender mercies."

The present availability of God's goodness and power will be brought out in readings from "Science and Health with key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, including the following (472:24-30 All): "All reality is in God and His creation, harmonious and eternal. That which He creates is good, and He makes all that is made. Therefore the only reality of sin, sickness, or death is the awful fact that unrealities seem real to human, erring belief, until God strips off their disguise. They are not true, because they are not of God."

ANNUAL EASTER FLOWER SHOW AT GARFIELD PARK BLAZE OF COLOR

The annual Easter and spring flower show of the Chicago Park District opened in Garfield and Lincoln park conservatories Sunday, and will continue through Sunday, April 17. The conservatories will be open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. every day, including holidays, and admission will be free.

This is one of the major floral displays in the conservatories and is considered one of the largest and most beautiful exhibits of spring flowers in this country. Easter lilies and spring flowers of many varieties totaling more than 45,000 have been grown in the park conservatories and greenhouses for this interesting floral display.

Chicago park district flower shows are outstanding displays arranged with exceptional artistry and skill under the direction of chief horticulturist William C. Blaesing. They have long been the delight not only of great throngs of Chicagoans but of visitors from far states. The first Easter and spring flower show was held in 1913; this is the 43rd consecutive display.

At Garfield Park more than a thousand Easter lilies of the Croft strain from Washington and Oregon will be the star attraction. More than 200 will be arranged in the shape of a huge cross, 20 feet long and 12 feet wide, set up on the slope of the rock garden. A special feature this year will be a collection of 6000 Holland grown narcissi, in 25 varieties; these include large-cupped and small-cupped narcissi, double narcissi, and Tazetta hybrids. Some of these have never been exhibited in the Chicago area before and will therefore be of special interest.

The show at Lincoln park conservatory will have as its theme a spring garden with a splashing waterfall, a trickling stream flowing beneath a rustic bridge, and a green lawn to add interest. Familiar and popular garden flowers such as pansies, primroses, nasturtiums, daffodils, bleeding heart, French hydrangeas, and many tulips and hyacinths will be used in this array of beauty and color. Prominent in the exhibit and symbolizing the Easter season, will be the large cross made up of several hundred Easter lilies; more than a thousand lily plants have been forced into bloom for this occasion.

Civic and school groups may obtain guide service at the flower show if arrangements are made in advance of their visit; the Lincoln Park conservatory number is Lincoln 9-3006, and the number at Garfield Park conservatory is KEDzie 3-1281.

Business students of Lincoln-Way recently enjoyed a demonstration of skill on the comptometer by Jeanette Talbot and Mrs. Louise Vanderpool, of the comptometer division of Felt and Tarrant Co. The students were given high speed demonstrations on all four operations of the comptometer by Mrs. Vanderpool and were told many facts about the Felt and Tarrant school. Many questions were asked of the two representatives, who said that L-W students were fortunate in having several comptometers at hand on which to practice, as comptometry offers excellent opportunities.

All Lincoln-Way students are invited to attend the open house of the Felt and Tarrant school in the Merchandise Mart April 11, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

BERT FULTON SCHOOL NEWS

Patrick Rea gave a very interesting lecture on Safety First to the Second Graders of the Bert Fulton School. The children asked many thoughtful and interested questions on safety rules.

Room 103, third grade has had a lot of fun making a mural about farm away places. They have studied Lapland, Eskimoland, Egypt and the South Sea Islands and these countries are painted in gay colors for all to enjoy as they walk through the halls.

Room 106 has joined the Easter parade by making some beautiful Easter bonnets. They were all so lovely that it was hard to decide on any special one to wear on Easter Sunday!

The Easter Bunny visited Miss Kelly's room and left some surprises in the baskets the children made. The class is having a growing contest. They charted their heights and will continue to do so in May and June.

Ricky Schneider of room 101 visited the new village hall. He gave a nice talk to his class about the purpose of it. Room 101 are learning to write some very fine sentences from their spelling words. They know how to use a period and a question mark. The children are very proud of their papers and take them home for their parents to see.

Easter and the springtime are on full display at the Bert Fulton School. Rabbits, Easter eggs, kites, murals are some of the art work the children are displaying at this time.

Room 110 have some gold fish as a new addition to the class. The children are carefully watching the development of some flower seeds planted last week. Soon they hope to have pretty pansies blooming in pots.

Third grade, room 105 has been thinking of spring - this is shown by the display of kites, rabbits and pictures of spring which the children have made. They are beginning a unit on transportation, and are bringing toy trains, trucks, boats and cars to help visualize the forms of travel. Division and fractions are new in arithmetic and seem quite easy since learning the multiplication tables.
